

4/5/29

Little Willie Fay Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson died at 9 o'clock, Tuesday morning March 26th, at the home of her grand father, W. R. Waddell. She was stricken with pneumonia and only lived a few days. The day following her death she would have been eight years old. Willie Fay was a very brilliant child with a lovable disposition that won for her, friends with all whom she associated. One of the most lovable characteristics was her beautiful devotion to her immediate family. She was admired for her tender care to her sisters and brothers, and her cheerful obedience to her parents and teacher. She dearly loved to go to grandpa's and in this home where she had spent so many happy hours, the funeral was held, the Rev. Mr. Lovett and P. T. McFee conducting the services. The burial was in Bluff cemetery. Surviving her are her father and mother, two brothers, Fred, Jr., and Harold and one sister, Maxine. Pallbearers were Fleet Reeves, Addie Waddell, William Waddell, Ralph Caldwell, Alrick Snelson and Eulysis Askew. The flower bearers were selected from among her cousins and school mates. They were Katheryn Roland, Verell Stamey, Katheryn Martin, Emma John Martin, Margaret Lucille Sparks, and Dorothy Louise Waddell.