

D. H. Baker, Of Madison
County, Laid To Rest
Tuesday

The man with the big hat and making music for a living, often seen on the streets of Marshall, will not be seen in our town again. His name was D. H. Baker, age 72, of the Big Pine section, and he passed away Monday at the home of Doyle Henderson, of the Big Pine section. He had been suffering from a weak heart for some time and was really sick for about two months. He is survived by one brother, Mr. N. F. Baker, of Barnard. Funeral services were Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock conducted by Rev. C. A. Worley from the North Fork Baptist church and interment followed at the cemetery near by. He was totally blind but always in good humor and enlivened the spirits of those with whom he came in contact by making music. 3/2/33.
