

Mrs. Emeline Bishop, wife of Mr. Joseph Bishop, of Big Laurel, N. C., died at her home on Big Laurel Thursday evening at five o'clock, March 19, 1931, age 86 years. The cause of her death was given as old age, her illness being only a few months.

Funeral services were Saturday March 21 at 10:00 A. M. at the family graveyard. The services were conducted by Rev. Cecil Reece. She leaves to mourn their loss seven children, six sons and one daughter, Mr. William Bishop of Long Branch, N. C., Wester Bishop of Marion, N. C., Ebb Bishop, Andrew Bishop, Dan Bishop, Mrs. W. H. Rice and Mr. Joshua Bishop all of Big Laurel, N. C., and seventy-two grandchildren, and a host of friends and relatives. She professed faith in Christ in early life. Grandma will be greatly missed, not only by her family, but all who knew her, but you see, Jesus loved her best, and that is why He took her to that place of rest. Grandmother has paid the debt we all must pay, and passed on to receive her reward, and to be with her many friends and loved ones that have gone on before.

Some people think we have nothing to fear but God gave our lives in the land of sorrow and strife. When death knocks at our door, we leave this world to come back no more. The bodies in the grave shall rise to meet the Saviour in the skies.

There will be singing in Heaven above, where there is always rest, peace and love. We shall be united with the angels fair, and walk the golden street up there. 4/7/31
