

The funeral of Mrs. Laura Carter Brown, wife of Mr. Thos. L. Brown, of Horse Shoe, N. C., was conducted at the home April 28. Dr. Oscar E. Sams of Mars Hill College and Dr. W. S. Hutchinson, pastor of Mills River Presbyterian church, were in charge. A quartette from Calvary Baptist church, West Asheville, also a quartette consisting of three nephews and a niece of Mrs. Brown sang: "The Old Rugged Cross;" "Have Thine Own Way, Lord;" and "Heaven Is Not Far Away."

Active pallbearers were Shelby Horton, John James, Boyd Ammons, Julius Kitchens, John Osborne, and Buren Fowler.

The funeral was largely attended by old friends neighbors, and relatives.

Besides her husband, the deceased is survived by three children, G. C. Brown, connected with the Asheville School System, Miss Myrtle Brown, of Horse Shoe, N. C., and Miss Flossie Brown, Washington, D. C.; one granddaughter, Marie Horton Brown; and four brothers and four sisters.

Mrs. Brown was born and reared in Madison County and lived there until a few years ago. 5-3-32
