

In the passing of Mrs. Martha Brown, who died on the afternoon of February 27, at the age of 90, the people of the Sandy Mush section lost one of its really lovable characters. Funeral services were held March 1st at 11 o'clock, conducted by Rev. G L Lovett, interment following at the Little Sandy Mush church cemetery. Pallbearers were: George Clark, Tiden Varner, Roscoe Reeves, Norman Randall, Burrell Brown and Joe Carver. She is survived by two children, Mr. Baxter Brown and Mrs. Margaret Welis, eleven grand-children and eight great grand-children. Mr. Charles F. Carver and family of Knoxville, Tenn. were present at the funeral.

"Aunt Martha," as she was lovingly called by all who knew her, quietly passed from earthly scenes. Hers was one of those rare spirits that possessed the charm of kindness and friendship of the old-fashioned type.

While her home was remote from the highway her loving service and sunny disposition attracted many friends to her fireside. She was a member of the Missionary Baptist church seventy-four years.
