

Death of Mrs. A. E. Bryan.

Thursday May ninth, Mrs. Jane Bryan, wife of A. E. Bryan, went home to God. Her age was forty-seven at her death. As member of the Baptist church for thirty-four of those years, she had served God faithfully; then it pleased Him to take her home. For two years she had suffered with the wasting disease that had laid hold on her; but she bore it all with the patience and fortitude of the true Christian. In the presence of a great number of relatives and friends the body was laid to rest in the Bryan cemetery, near the home of G. W. Bryan, Sr. Funeral services were conducted at the grave by the writer. To the bereaved family, the husband and eight children, who are left to mourn their loss, we extend our deepest sympathy and commend them to Him who alone can wipe away all tears.
