

MAGGIE MAE BURRIS DEAD

14 Year Old Daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. W. F. Burris, Born
February 25, 1911, Died
March 13, 1925, At
The French Broad
Hospital

God in his infinite wisdom, has seen fit to call from our midst one of our beloved girls, Maggie Mae, who was taken ill Wednesday, March 4, with something new. She was taken to the French Broad hospital at Asheville Monday, March 9, and underwent an operation, the same day. Her case was undecided by the Doctors. She suffered all the time. She was examined by five good Doctors. Her first examination gave her no relief. Some time Tuesday night, March 10, she underwent another operation, when they found pus both times in her left side, which was thought to have caused by a frost bitten heel, and set up blood poison. All was done for her that could be done, although she still suffered. Friday morning near 9 o'clock, Jesus took her to dwell with Him, to await the coming of her loved ones, where there will be no more sorrow or tears..

When she realized that she must go, she called for her loved ones, and asked them to live better—to be Christians—and meet her again in Heaven with Jesus. She was a member of the Laurel Branch Baptist church and a cheerful little girl. She will be missed by all who kenw her.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Jesse Corn on Saturday evening March 14, after which the remains were layed to rest in the Laurel Branch cemetery, near her home, to await the coming of the resurrection. The bereaved ones have our heart-felt sympa-
