

Death of Mrs. A. W. Coats

Mrs. A. W. Coats of Marshall, Route 2, died at her home Wednesday morning, March 10th, following illness of influenza and pneumonia. She was an active member of the Grapevine Baptist Church.

She was Miss Dahlia Coats of N. C., and was married to A. W. Coats in July 1885.

Her husband, A. W. Coats, died in 1912. She is survived by her children, her son, Robert Coats, N. C., two daughters, Mrs. William and Mrs. Robert Coats, brother Lee Coats, N. C.

Mrs. Coats was greatly loved by all who knew her. She was a devoted wife and mother and was always gentle and quiet. She will be missed by her friends and relatives but God calls and we submit humbly to His holy will. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Jesse Coats at 2 p. m. Thursday and took place at the funeral home ground near her home.

Asleep in Jesus blessed sleep.
From which none can ever sweep,
At rest and undisturbed,
Unbroken by the last of foes.
Servant of God rest from thy loved employ,
Relieved from pain and toil, dwell
In perfect joy.
