

MRS. COCHRUM DEAD

Mrs. J. W. Cochrum, of 1012 Valley St., Knoxville, Tenn., was buried at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning at the Piney Grove cemetery in the Sandy Mush section. Mrs. Cochrum died of pneumonia Saturday night at the General Hospital in Knoxville. She had been in failing health for about a year. Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Jerome Woodson at the Piney Grove church.

She is survived by her husband, J. W. Cochrum, a brother, Lawar O'Dell of New Castle, Ind., and one sister, Mrs. H. K. Ramsey of Marshall; seven children, Mrs. E. S. Davis, Asheville, Miss Golda Cochrum, Chicago, W. L. Cochrum, C. M. Cochrum, George Cochrum, Ted Cochrum and Miss Edna Cochrum of Knoxville.

Mrs. Cochrum was a native of Madison County, having lived in the vicinity of Piney Grove until she left for New Castle, Indiana, where she made her home until about a year ago.

Several friends and relatives came with the body from Knoxville and stayed at the New Central Hotel here until Thursday. 12-29-32
