

On the morning of December 10, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jeter Conner and took away their little son, Carl. He was a child that was loved by every one who knew him. At 10 o'clock on December 11, his body was laid to rest in the cemetery at the Zion Baptist church. He is gone but not forgotten. There is a vacant place in the home, but one more link in the chain above
