

MR. L. J. CROW DEAD

On Tuesday, January 17th, 1928, at 3:20 A. M., the grim Angel of Death claimed Mr. Levi Jackson Crow of Marshall, age 58, death being caused by heart trouble. Mr. Crow was confined to bed only a week, having gone to bed Wednesday of last week.

The funeral service was conducted Wednesday at 2:00 P. M., by Rev. H. L. Smith and Rev. Mr. Scoggins, and the body was interred at the Redmon Cemetery. The Masonic Order had charge of the funeral services.

Mr. Crow was a Mason and a Free Will Baptist.

The deceased is survived by his wife, Mrs Axie Crow, two sisters, four brothers, and nine children. The names of the children follow: Arthur Crow, of Asheville, R. 5; Frank Crow, Everett Crow, Wayne Crow, Kate Helm, Ira Payne, and Addie Crow of Marshall; Valeria Landreth, of Greenville, S. C.; and Ella Keys, of Alexander.

1/20/28