

John Davis Passes Away.

Uncle John Davis, blacksmith, arveyor and millright and familiarly known as honest John Davis died Saturday morning from a stroke of paralysis which he suffered on Monday previous. Mr. Davis was getting well along 1 years but was hale and hearty and was working daily in his shop p until last week. 1/21/10

HCR