

7/1/1910

Mont English, son of Oliver English died Monday June 27th between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock p. m., About three months ago he and his father were hauling some logs and one of the log rolled against a tree causing some dead limbs in the top of the tree to fall. The decased was struck by the falling limbs, the blow resulting in paralyses. He was buried at 9 o'clock a. m. June 29th at the English cemetery on Puncheon Fork. Mont English was a young man with life and its promises before. We extend our sympathies to the bereft family and relatives.