Mrs. Eliza Hensley, wife of James B. Hensley, died at her home near Marshall Sunday morning at the age of seventy-eight. She had been ill only a few days. Mrs. Hensley was a sister of Major W. W. Rollins, of Asheville, and was well known in Madison and Buncombe Counties [illegible] sired by her husband and two daughters, Mrs. Ramsey of Walnut, and Mrs. Sallie Lawson of Hot Springs. Among her grandchildren are Mrs. J. J. Bailey of Volga, Mrs. J. J. Jarret of Marshall, and Everett Chandley now in navy service.

Funeral services were conducted at the home Monday by Rev. A. I. Justice, of the Marshall Baptist church and Rev. S. T. Hensley, Mrs Hensley's former pastor. The interment followed at the Chandley graveyard near Marshall.—Asheville Citizen.

1/28/1919