

Mrs. Jack Thomas died suddenly by Thursday October 13. Mr. M.
Thomas had been in very poor health for some time but his death was not expected. She seemed to be as usual during the day. In the evening she started through the house to a drink of water and fell dead the floor. She was a member of the Freeville Baptist Church Walton and was highly respected by all who knew her. The funeral was conducted on the evening of day 14th, by Rev. J. H. Ballard.
