

Death of James B. White

One of the saddest incidents that has occurred in our community in some time was last Saturday morning August 23, 1919, when the death angel called from our midst our beloved brother and neighbor Mr. James B. White. Mr. White for some time has been suffering from the dreaded disease tuberculosis, but he bore his affliction patiently and had no fear of death, but rather believed that God's love sometimes appear to be his wrath, and his best gift is the white rose of death.

For several years Mr. White has been a member of the Christian Church, and if we are known by our works he will long be remembered for he was truly a devoted and efficient member.

Mr. White was a loyal citizen and was one of the leaders in the Roaring Fork vicinity. He played an active part in every thing that raised the standad of his community. Consequently he was most esteemed by every one who knew him and his manly christian life gave him, from all who knew him, the love and respect that such a character always wins by its nobility and charm.

Mr. White leaves a wife and host of relatives and friend to mourn their sad bereavement. But our loss is Heaven's gain, and Mr. White awaits on the other shore to welcome his dear ones left behind. May the noble and beautiful life lived by Mr. White be an example for all of us to follow.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. Ervin Davis, and the body was laid away in the Bethel cemetery.

May the God of peace bring peace and comfort to all sad hearts who mourn the loss of the dear husband and kind friend.
