

Mr. Henry Worley residing at Little Pine Creek died wednesday afternoon April 16th. Mr. Worley has been suffering for some time and has been dangerously ill for weeks but last week was a little better. He became worse and died at the time stated.

Uncle Henry has been a well known man for many years and had amassed quite a fortune being possessed of a large land holdings. He has always lived where his last days were spent. He served in the Civil War and was a constant attendant at the reunions. His body was laid away at the Kirk Payne cemetery on Thursday and the old soldiers attended in a body. We extend to the family our sympathy.
